

Treasures of the Snow

High in the Swiss Alps a little boy, Danny, disappears. Lucien, a lonely frightened boy of 13 is overtaken by catastrophic events and finds himself an outcast with his family, school friends, and especially the very hostile Annette from the neighboring farm.

Impelled to escape, the fugitive boy finds peace high up in the forest.

There he meets an old woodcarver who encourages him so that he begins to have hope. But when rejection comes once again he discovers that a price has to be paid for forgiveness before there can be reconciliation.
